FOR COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.

TAULBEE We are authorized to announce JOHN W. TAULBEE as a candidate for County Superintendent of Schools, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

THE Tenth Republican Convention held at Winchester Tuesday, May 5th, after instructing delegates to the Louisville convention, nominated Hon. John W. Langley as candidate for congress to succeed himself. This action was a well deserved compliment to Mr. Langley, who has worked for the people he represents, regardless of political affiliation, creed or color, and demonstrates beyond doubt that his own party, at least, recognizes his worth. But, speaking of conventions, wasn't the Louisville pow-wow a peach, with the furz ruffled? Yea, verily, and more.

JOHN W. TAULBEE, of Daysboro, ex-Superintendent of the Public Schools of Wolfe County, is again announced in our colums as an aspirant for the same position. and submits his claims to the action of the Democratic primary. Mr. Taulbee served the county for four years in the same position, and looking back over his record we believe he rendered general satisfaction. Among other things he brought the schools to greater proficiency and improved the service in various ways. He visited the schools with regularity and whenever and wherever complaint was made he was prompt to attend to the matter. He is qualified in every way for the place, and if he be nominated and elected he says he will devote both his time and attention to the duties of the position, and as no other candidate is out for the place, so far as known, he may receive the nomination by acclamation, in which event he would surely be elected. Of course it is a long time until the primary election, and meantime any number may announce for the place. You will know it if you read it in this paper.

Kelly Kash.

As the time for the Republican primary in this judicial district approaches, and the people continue to discuss the prospects of the various candidates, the prospects of our friend Kelly Kash for Commonwealth's Attorney become the more flattering, and it appears proper and fitting that the Republicans of Wolfe county, and of the entire district as well, should honor him with their support for this nomination. The Republican governor of Kentucky in appointing Mr. Kash to this position saw in him the make up and proper qualifications for this office and decided well when he elevated him to this responsible position. He is now filling the duties of this office to the satisfaction of the people, and bringing to his work qualifications and ability that is not excelled by the older members of the bar.

Kelly Kash is a native of Wolfe county, and he resided here and attended our schools until he reached his majority, when he went to Jackson. It will be remembered that he was a student in the Hazel Green Academy during the latter 90's, and he is held in high esteem by the citizens of this community, and he is still a frequent visitor to our town and a friend to our school.

At the time of his appointment to this office he was enjoying a most lucrative practice of the law at Jackson, both in the State and the Federal courts, and he is recognized as one of the leading young members of the Eastern Kentucky bar.

His nomination for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney by the Republican party in this district would place before the people a strong candidate, and would be a recognition of his ability as a lawyer and his high character as a citizen.

Choose Vacation Companions With Care.

Let me warn those who are planning for a summer's recreation to choose their vacation friends with care, says Christine Terhune Herrick in the June Delineator.

For example, I know a girl who had planned to go to a quiet country with a casual friend. It was a girl whom she had not known intimately, but they had been thrown together more or less, and when the proposition was made by one of them that they should go together on their vacation both thought it would be a good thing. But it wasn't. They did not know each other well enough to risk it, and when they were thrown closely together each was disappointed in the other, and they did not have enough adaptability to hit it off well on some subjects because they failed to agree on others. That vacation was a failure to both.

Adother mistake sometimes made is in going to the wrong sort of place. Make up your mind from the first what you want to do when you go away, then select your place.

The girl who is tired out with hard work should not choose a gay resort where there will be much dressing and constant excitement of one kind or another. She needs a country place or a quiet seaside spot, where she can lie in a hammock or on the sand and look at green trees or blue waves. On the other hand, the home girl who has a constant round of monotonous duties will be helped by a taste of liveliness in her outing, and will be better for meeting new people.

Slights will encounter you on every side, disappointments will meet you, faults will swarm in the places and persons you encounter, and if you get any good out of your vacation, you will do it, so to speak, in spite of yourself.

But bring enthusiasm and a determination to enjoy, and it must be a very desperate condition of things which will make the holiday a failure.

A Unique Gathering.

A unique party of young people assembled at the home of the editor and his better seven-eighths Monday night, to show their respect and friendship, and each of them left a nickel as a souvenir of the occasion. There being 21 of them present the sum was $1.05, and two who could not attend sent a nickel each. Others not apprised of the affair sent their regrets. We had the money changed into nickels, which we put away as mementoes of an occasion we heartily enjoyed, and if our visitors were as well pleased our happiness is unalloyed. Here's the guests:

A Safe Institution.

See the new bank ad in this issue and when you read it if you are not now a depositor remember that it is dangerous to carry cash money on your person. Last week James Sullinger, a cattle trader 67 years of age, according to the Allen County Times, who had $5,000 to pay for some cattle, was robbed and his body found in an abandoned well. Had he used checks and kept his money in bank he might today be alive and buying cattle.

Mrs. Helen Moses Dead.

News has come of the death of Mrs. Helen E. Moses, National President of the Christian Women's Board of Missions, and one of the most widely beloved and best known women in the United States, which occurred at her home in Indianapolis on Sunday. She leaves a large number of friends in Lexington who are in deepest grief at her loss.

Mrs. Moses was the wife of Mr. William Moses, and had been in failing health for several years. She spent the months of last December and January in this city under the care of a Lexington specialist, and had been better until two weeks ago, when hemorrhage of the throat began, causing her death.

The loss to the C. W. B. M. work can scarcely be estimated, as she was its great leader and inspiration. With Mrs. Moses as National President the Board has established schools and churches in many places, at Hazel Green and Morehead, in Porto Rico, Cuba, China, Japan and other countries.

Mrs. A. M. Harrison left yesterday afternoon for Indianapolis to attend the funeral, which will take place there today.—Lexington Herald, 12th.

Uncle Remus's—The Home Magazine for May.

With the May issue Uncle Remus's Magazine appears amplified in name and size, having purchased the Hone Magazine, of Indianapolis, it becomes the Uncle Remus's—The Home Magazine, and is larger and dressed in more pleasing typographical style than either of its forebears.

The May number is chock full of good matter. Fiction by Virginia Woodward Cloud, Geirge Randolph Chester, Reina Melcher and Will N. Harben is balanced with a wealth of special articles of varied appeal, some excellent verse, and inimitable departments conducted by Mr. Harris, Don Marquis and Mary E. Bryan.

Mr. Billy Sanders discusses Tom Lawson and the people, and Uncle Remus himself has a department devoted to the children, which is of course of interest to the whole family. The old darkey tells a new story in the old time manner, and this is followed by many interesting letters written to him by the youngsters.

The illustrations for the number are by Lucy May Stanton, Maud Thurston, Robert Edwards, Worth Brehm, Alice Beach Winter and R. J. Dean.

Gone to the City.

J. T. Day and his grandson, Jesse Kash, left Sunday for Lexington, where the former will buy new furniture and fixtures for the Combs House at Campton, which he has purchased. He has also started a hack line between this place and Campton, one hack from Hazel Green daily, and one leaving Campton at same time. Passengers can connect with all Mountain Central trains.

Later.—Since the above was put in type it is learned that Mr. Day is in Cincinnati and Louisville buying goods.

Has Gone West.

Our young friend, Henry Ward, left yesterday for Fort Duchesne, Utah, where he has a situation in the Government irrigation service as bookkeeper at a nice salary. He thus not only gets paid for his knowledge as bookkeeper, but adds to his store of information by seeing that vast country, learning the ways of the people, etc., and all at the expense of others.

Returned Home Looking Well.

Hon. W. O. Mize and wife, who spent the winter in Florida, came home Monday afternoon, looking to be in fine health. Mr. Mize has gained several pounds in weight, and while Mrs. Mize lost in weight she gained in general health, and is looking fine. Carl, their son, who spent the winter with them, is now at Ashville, N. C., and he has gained some in weight. He will come home when real summer weather makes its appearance.

Bought the Cattle.

Charley Rose yesterday bought a pair of oxen from Henry Murphy, of Maytown, a black and a piebald, that weigh about 3,000 pounds, known as the Joe Rose cattle, for $140. This is the best pair of cattle, perhaps, in this section—anyhow the best that have recently changed hands, and Charley is quite proud of his purchase. He also bought 25 head of good feeders while here, and leaves for home today.

A Feathered Freak.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coldiron, near Hazel Green, one day last week there was hatched a chicken which will rank as among the phenomenal of curics. It has four legs, four wings, two backs, two necks, one head, and only one eye, but the latter is in regular position, being on the side of the head. It was dead when taken from the shell, but Mr. Coldiron was taxidermist enough to stuff it, knowing it would be considered a curiosity, and any doubting Thomas may see the stuffed skin at his home.

News was received here late yesterday evening that Mrs. Rebecca Hall, of Maytown, who has been an invalid for a long time, was at the point of death. Dr. Williams, of this place, has been attending her for several months and through his skill was able to stay the ravages of the disease until a week or so ago, when he informed her husband, L. P. Hall, that he could do no more for her and that it would be useless for him to come again.

Miss Lillie Cecil, of Grassy creek, accompanied by Albert Henry, of Oklahoma, who is visiting Kentucky relatives in Morgan, whence he left 20 years ago, took dinner with Robt. Cecil and wife yesterday. Young Henry was about six years old when parents went west.

Epilepsy, Fits

Convulsions, or Spasms and St. Vitus' Dance are Nervous Diseases. Most cases can be cured by strengthening and building up the nervous system. To do this a nerve medicine is needed. Dr. Miles' Nervine will be found efficacious and satisfactory. It has cured many cases of these diseases and we believe it will cure you. We can give you names of many who have been cured through its use. Write for advice.

"My son John had epilepsy for years, and after having him treated by specialists for over 2 years he still continued to have spells. I had almost given up in despair, but knowing the virtue of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for sick headache, I concluded to try the Nervine. During June, 1906, I gave him a teaspoonful three times a day, then in July I gave it as directed, and I could see that he was improving, and he has not had a spell since August 28, 1906, and has taken no medicine since Jan.-07. I am writing the case just as it is hoping it will induce others to try it."

KENTUCKY KERNELS

Carefully Collated and Concisely Chronicled.

Ed Schmitt and two children were poisoned last week at Hopkinsville by eating salad. One child is in a critical condition.

Jacob Harper was shot and killed the other night on Sinking creek, near Olive Hill. His brother-in-law, L. Johnson, is charged with the crime.

Night riders from Kentucky have invaded the tobacco districts of Ohio, and now the Ohio side of the river is patroled by mounted troops and secret service men. Watch for developments in our neighbor state.

A severe "twister storm" passed over a portion of Franklin county, one night last week. Near Choatville it unroofed and demolished a number of houses, barns, fences, etc., but no lives were lost though a number of persons were more or less injured.

Within a few days there will be distributed from the Adjutant General's office $30,000 among the Kentcky soldiers who took part in the Spanish-American war. It is to pay the men for the time they remained in camp until mustered into service.

While rushing to a fire Capt. John Kraemer, of No. 10 reel of Louisville, was thrown from his seat next to the driver and striking on his head was instantly killed. The firemen stopped long enough to lay the body on the curbing, where friends took charge of it.

Henry Fraley shot and killed his brother, George Fraley, one night last week at Morehead. They had quarreled over a piece of land. George was acquitted only a short time ago of the murder of Sebron Prophet, who was shot from ambush while riding on a water wagon.

Lawrence Bruner, of Hawesville, charged with the betrayal of his 16-year-old sister-in-law, Ruey Nichols, who recently became a mother, was arrested in Paducah and taken back to Hawesville. Mob violence was feared and the sheriff slipped his prisoner through a by street to jail.

In a feud battle between the Brown and Mitchell factions on the Letcher-Perry border, Isaac Brown, of the Brown faction, was killed and Bob Brown, of the same faction, seriously wounded. William Mitchell, leader of the Mitchell gang, and who had killed several men, was fatally shot.

Notwithstanding troops are on duty in various parts of the state, destroying tobacco beds and other depredations still continues in the tobacco growing districts. Wholesale arrests are being made all along the line. If a few of the ringleaders were hanged, the rank and file would soon disperse.

The persistent efforts of the citizens of Mt. Sterling for the past twenty years to have the C. & O. railroad company build a new depot in that city have at last brought victory. The state railroad commission has ordered the company to build a new depot and that work on the same must begin within 90 days.

Hilary Clark, of near Clarkson, Grayson county, owns a cat that has two heads, yet but only two eyes and two ears. It possesses two faces and two mouths, and can eat with either or both mouths at will. It can exterminate as many rodents as two ordinary cats, and catches them with either mouth.

While reaching after a tennis ball in Bear Creek, near Louisville, the bank gave way precipitating Edwin Dickman, aged 13, into the swirling waters and all efforts on the part of his older brother and a playmate were unavailing, and the little fellow was swept by the relentless current into the raging waters of the Ohio river.

Information has been received at the Adjutant General's office in Frankfort that two negroes had been killed and a white man seriously wounded, in Madison county, a few nights ago, by a well known tobacco grower whose property had been threatened. The informant says that half a dozen men called on the grower late at night and made peremptory demand that he destroy his tobacco beds, and on his refusal to do so, took matters in hand themselves. While engaged in the destruction the grower fired on them with the result stated.

Rev. J. W. Mitchell, for half a century a Methodit minister, died suddenly at his home in Covington last week. During his life he witnessed the conversion of over 5,000 persons, and officiated at about the same number of funerals. He was chaplain of a Confederate Kentucky regiment during the war. His remains were taken to Louisville for interment.

One of the most unique weddings in the history of Eastern Kentucky occurred on Upper Rock creek, it Letcher county, Sunday night, when young Leonard Hall, barely 15, son of Elder Joe Hall, a hardshell minister, was married to little Miss Annie Profitt, barely 12, daughter of Mrs. Sarah Profitt, a poor widow. The father of the groom officiated at the wedding.

Going to see the circus at Frankfort, last week, caused City Marshal Enos Dowling, of Tyrone, to have served on him papers in a $5,000 damage suit, brought by Wm. Edwards, who claims he was unlawfully arrested and confined by Dowling on the charge of attempted murder. Dowling's popularity at home caused Edwards to wait until Dowling got away from Anderson county.

Reports from Louisville say that the Republican convention held there recently was a howling mob and more disorderly than the Music Hall convention which nominated William Goebel, and although 35 extra policemen were stationed in the hall, Chairman D. C. Edwards at no time had it under control. It is said to have been the most disorderly convention ever witnessed.

Learning that he had been indicted for alleged complicity in the robbery of the Bandana Bank, April 23, Ernest Elmendorf surrendered to the chief of police of Paducah. His arrest was the fourth in the case, and two men are still at large. A few years ago Elmendorf and "Spotty" Wing, a Cincinnati crook, were sent up for blowing a safe at Iola, Livingston county. Wing got 14 years and Elmendorf two. The latter was pardoned.

What might have proved a serious outbreak and wholesale delivery of convicts at the Frankfort penitentiary last week, was averted by the timely discovery and prompt action of Warden E. E. Mudd. A saw was found in the cell of one of the negro prisoners and a key to the lock in another cell near by. A thorough search brought to light fully a peck of homemade knives, some long and some short, hidden away in the cells of the negro quarters.

Twenty-one men were arrested in Lyon county and taken to Marion on the charge of night riding and marauding in Crittenden county. They were released on bail, and as soon as twelve of the number had reached home they were arrested by the sheriff of Lyon county charged with being members of the gang that whipped nine persons and "shot up" Eddyville last February. They gave bond and were at once rearrested on the charge of other depredations.

At Shaker Ferry, near High Bridge, on the Kentucky river, Henry Renfro shot James Henry three times. The men were taking some rafts of logs to Frankfort, but were unable to get through the lock on account of high water, and while waiting got to drinking and quarreled. Henry started at Renfro with an ax and Renfro fired with the result stated. The day previous Henry loaded Renfro's pistol and put in two poisoned balls saying that if one of them even scratched the skin the person would not get over it. Both men were from Beattyville.
